

SMART Board Training

Audience: K-12 Teachers

Have a new SMART Board in your classroom? Come and learn about all the amazing features and acquire lessons to use in your classroom!

Topics covered:

- Notebook software basics
- Floating toolbar: using the SMART Board with the Internet and other applications
- Creating content in SMART Notebook
- Searching for pre-made content, Using the Gallery and flash tools
- Scanning or inserting images to use in Notebook lessons
- Advanced features such as hide and reveal, linking, audio and video attachments, locking, grouping, infinite cloner, etc.
- Examples of curriculum-related lessons and projects with the SMART Board
- Using SMART Recorder to make movies or podcasts on the SMART Board
- SMART Ideas software (Inspiration-like concept mapping software)

Each participant will receive the book: Using Technology with Classroom Instruction that Works, by Howard Pitler, Elizabeth Hubbell, Matt Kuhn, and Kim Malenoski.

Date: 9/18/2008

Time: 9:00 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Site: ESU #9 JVW

Presenter/Facilitator(s):

Jackie Ediger

Registration Deadline: 9/11/2008

Questions: Jackie Ediger - jediger@esu9.org

$15.00

Register Online at <http://esu9.org>
On-Line Registration